- High—Considerable walking and/or numerous steps involved, possibly on uneven surfaces. No elevators are present at destination. This tour is considered inappropriate for persons with mobility limitations.

DayTripper Tours is a participant in the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation (TCRC). Our Seller of Travel number is CST 2013401-50. You, the passenger, may request reimbursement from TCRC if you are owed a refund of more than $50 for transportation or travel services which was due to you in accordance with the terms and conditions under “Cancellations and Refunds” and was not refunded in a timely manner by a seller of travel who was registered and participating in the TCRC at the time of sale. The maximum amount which may be paid by the TCRC to any one passenger is the total amount paid on behalf of the passenger to the seller of travel, not to exceed $15,000. A claim must be submitted to the TCRC within six months after the scheduled completion date of travel. A claim must include sufficient information and documentation to prove your claim and a $35 processing fee. You must agree to waive your right to other civil remedies against a registered participating seller of travel for matters arising out of a sale for which you file a claim with TCRC, if you were located in California at the time of the sale. You may request a claim form by writing to: Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation, P.O. Box 6001, Larkspur, CA 94977-6001; or by faxing a request to (415) 927-7698.
A Candelabra Christmas: Liberace Tribute Show

Join us at The Grand event center in Long Beach for a delectable holiday-themed luncheon and a must-see original holiday stage show starring Daryl Wagner as Mr. Showmanship himself, Liberace. A Candelabra Christmas is filled with all the holiday warmth, music, joy and laughter expected during this beloved season. Impressionist Daryl Wagner worked for Liberace in Las Vegas and has paid tribute to him for more than 20 years. Featuring amazing piano performances, comedy, your favorite seasonal sing-along carols, a special tribute to Judy Garland by impressionist Bethany Owens and, of course, the show-stopping costumes only Liberace could wear, you won't want to miss this afternoon of colorful holiday entertainment.

A Gourmet Thanksgiving Luncheon at the White House

Join us on this wonderful holiday as we visit a landmark jewel in Anaheim. Once nestled quietly among an enormous orange grove in the early 20th century, the White House restaurant is still one of Anaheim's most famous hidden treasures. Experience award-winning excellence and a traditional gourmet Thanksgiving Day feast complete with roasted turkey, mashed potatoes, pumpkin pie, and all the fixings in the extensively renovated West Wing restored to elegance after a catastrophic fire in early 2017. Chef Bruno's philosophy is simple: Treat each and every one of his patrons as a distinguished guest in his home. Numerous celebrities such as Danny DeVito, Andrea Bocelli and even former president Jimmy Carter have graced the home's threshold. The restaurant even carries a Five Star Diamond Award bestowed by the American Academy of Hospitality Sciences. Following lunch, enjoy free time for a leisurely stroll along the lively promenade at Downtown Disney. This year, spend Thanksgiving Day with your DayTripper family and leave the driving (and the dishes) to us!

Arabian Horse Exhibition & Lunch at Kellogg Ranch in Pomona

In 1925, cereal magnate W.K. Kellogg purchased 377 acres for his Arabian horse ranch and winter home in Pomona. He later donated the ranch to Cal Poly Pomona college, whose Equine Studies students continue the tradition of hosting the fabulous Arabian Horse exhibitions which demonstrate the grace, beauty and intelligence of these magnificent animals. The program features the Arabian horse under both English and Western tack to highlight its qualities as a talented jumper and utility as a pleasure horse. The Arabian's athleticism and skill of the trainers are further exhibited in the liberty and trick horse acts of the program. Your visit to Kellogg Ranch also includes a tour of the spectacular hilltop home, a buffet lunch at the Kellogg West Restaurant, and a stop at the Farm Store.

Architectural Tour of Historic Sam Maloof Home

Step into the residence of a master craftsman when you travel with us to Alta Loma for a tour of the historic home and woodworking studio of the late Sam Maloof. Acknowledged as one of the finest woodworkers of our time, Sam Maloof created furniture infused with a profound artistic vision for more than half a century. He created a home of unique beauty and artistry that is a setting for his furniture, as well as the extensive art collection he and his wife gathered over the years. After a guided tour of the home and gardens, we continue to the historic Graber Olive Packing House in Ontario, where the world-famous Graber Olives have been grown and produced since 1894. You'll tour the processing plant, visit the gourmet gift shop and sample the delectable fruit. Your excursion includes time for lunch on your own and to explore either the impressive Bass Pro Shop or Victoria Gardens open-air shopping district.

Reservations: Telephone and online reservations must be followed by receipt of your payment or your seat reservations are subject to release without notice. One-day tours must be paid in full. Final balances on overnight tours are due on the date specified on your confirmation. Reservations made after the cancellation deadline has passed are due in full at the time of booking and are non-refundable except under the terms of the Cancellation Protection or Travel Protection Plans below.

Seating Assignments: Motor coach seats are assigned from front to back in the order your reservation is confirmed with deposit. Special seating requests toward the front of the bus cannot be honored; curb side or driver side may be requested but not guaranteed. Persons with disabilities with a valid and current disabled placard number on file with us may receive priority seating in the front half of the coach. In addition, we are pleased to accommodate guests who have a medical history or have medical emergency allergies. These requests are implemented at DayTripper Tours’ discretion. Performance venue seats are assigned from front to back within our group block in the order your reservation is confirmed with deposit. Due to box office policies on performing arts tours, we can only provide general seating sections such as “orchestra” or “balcony” and cannot provide specific seat locations. These requests are implemented at DayTripper Tours’ discretion.

Cancellation Protection Plan (CPP): DayTripper Tours offers an optional Cancellation Protection Plan (CPP) for most one-day and multi-day tours that depart from San Diego by Motor Coach. The CPP allows you to cancel your reservation for any reason up until two hours before your scheduled departure time and receive a full refund (less the CPP fee), provided you notify DayTripper Tours by telephone of your change of plans at least two hours prior to your scheduled departure time. The CPP must be purchased prior to the tour’s normal cancellation deadline. To cancel your reservation please call (800) 678-8747 and press zero. An agent is available 24/7 to process your request. Cost of the CPP for one-day and multi-day motor coach tours is $5 for each $50 increment of the full, non-refundable tour fare plus any add-on options. CPP does not pay for the single supplement of the remaining traveler when a traveling companion cancels at any time during the tour. A one-time fee of $10 per person is charged regardless of the number of passengers in the group. If a request is made for a refund rather than an agreed-upon cancellation fee paid in advance for the right to cancel a reservation according to the terms stated in this section, CPP is not offered on certain ticketed events or on tours that include air, rail or cruise line transportation.

Travel Protection for Air, Rail and Cruise Tours: DayTripper Tours offers travel insurance provided through Incover Travel Insure, International and Travel Guard. These companies provide a variety of Travel Protection options on tours involving air, rail, and cruise vacations, and as an alternative to the CPP. Please call for details and/or an insurance application.

Cancellations, Refunds and Change Fees for Individuals: Refunds for tour reservations canceled by the passenger must be made no later than two hours prior to the departure of the Tour from the central departure location. Tours from countries that do not allow us to change time of tour, or specific search that is conducted for each. Other modes of transportation offer please: call for specific deadlines and policies for each tour. No refunds, transfers or credits will be issued for any reason on reservations canceled after the cancellation deadline. Reservations made after the cancellation deadline has passed must be paid in full at the time the reservation is made and are non-refundable and nontransferable at that time. Reservations for the specific “Travel Protection” section below have separate policies. Cancellation deadlines for multi-day tour reservations that are canceled prior to the cancellation deadline, a $100 per person administrative fee will be charged except when funds are held on account for future use. For multi-day motor coach tours, you must cancel your reservation 45 or more days prior to the tour’s departure date to receive a refund, transfer or credit. On multi-day tour reservations that are canceled prior to the cancellation deadline, a $100 per person administrative fee will be charged except when funds are held on account for future use. Passenger name changes, deviations, or other changes made by the passenger after the final payment deadline has passed will be assessed a $100 per person change fee, plus any fees incurred by the service providers, such as airlines, cruise lines, etc. Cancellation deadlines and policies for cruises, tours operated through airlines, and domestic flights are non-refundable and nontransferable. Other modes of transportation offer please: call for specific deadlines and policies for each tour. No refunds, transfers or credits will be issued for any reason on reservations canceled after the cancellation deadline. Reservations made after the cancellation deadline has passed must be paid in full at the time the reservation is made and are non-refundable and nontransferable at that time. Reservations for the specific “Travel Protection” section below have separate policies. Cancellation deadlines for multi-day tour reservations that are canceled prior to the cancellation deadline, a $100 per person administrative fee will be charged except when funds are held on account for future use.

Age Restrictions: Our excursions are designed with the needs and desires of mature travelers in mind; therefore, we are unable to accept travelers under the age of 18 except by special request. When permission is granted, a responsible adult must accompany and supervise all children under the age of 18 at all times while on a tour. Transportation: Travelers under the age of 18 are permitted to travel on a DayTripper Tours excursion into Mexico. All passengers are responsible for determining the requirements for their particular situation and for obtaining all required documents and information by calling the INS at (815) 690-8888. Failure to do so may result in detention at the border and require alternate transportation home at the passenger’s expense.

Customer Service: DayTripper Tours is committed to providing a comfortable and enjoyable experience for all of our customers. As part of this commitment, we require the purchase of an additional seat for any customer who cannot comfortably fit within the boundaries of one seat on the motor coach. Although there are slight differences in seat size depending on the coach used, the width of the seat typically measures between 17” and 19” inches. If you are traveling alone and will not be able to share the seat with any other passenger, you may only purchase one seat. If you need to purchase a second seat at the discounted price of $69 per day if available. An additional seat may not be available on some tours. The price of the additional seat will be refunded to you on the day of the tour if empty seats are available. The purchase of a second seat is not required if you are traveling with another non-Special needs guest and you agree to the seat next to you. We request that you purchase the additional seat in advance so that we can adequately plan and ensure that adjacent seating is available. If you require a second seat and it has not been purchased in advance, you will be asked to purchase the additional seat before boarding the motor coach. There is always the possibility that the tour will be fully booked and two seats will not be available together, which could compromise your ability to participate in the tour. We therefore strongly encourage you to purchase the second seat at the time you make your reservation. DayTripper Tours is committed to complying with all applicable provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and its corresponding state and local laws. It is our policy not to discriminate against anyone because of a disability. In line with this policy of nondiscrimination, if your need for an additional seat is because of a disability, we ask that you please inform us of your need for a reasonable accommodation at the time of booking your reservation. In this instance, an additional seat will be provided to you at no cost if available.

Special Requests: DayTripper Tours will provide the services and facilities of your vacation package as described in our catalog and confirmed on your invoice. Special meals and dietary needs fall outside our control and are not guaranteed. DayTripper Tours cannot accommodate any special requests other than those described, such as special hotel room or airline seating requests, we will gladly communicate your special request to the appropriate vendor on your behalf. However, since these requests lie outside our contracts with our suppliers, DayTripper Tours cannot guarantee or assume responsibility for the outcome of these requests. Phishing Scam: If you receive an email from the Tour Manager or fellow travelers may, and often do; take photographs and videos in order to share the experience on social media platforms and on DayTripper Tours’ website. It is possible that you may appear in one or more of the photos or videos, and by joining a DayTripper Tours excursion you are giving your consent to be photographed and/or recorded and to have your appearance and voice used in any and all media throughout the universe and all media that exist in the future. We cannot ensure that other companies or travel operators outside of the United States and/or other countries outside of the United States, and/or other countries, do not independently follow this policy. If you are uncomfortable with this policy, please let us know at the time of booking your reservation and we will be happy to assist you in making other arrangements.

Liability: DayTripper Tours acts solely as the agent in arranging and coordinating various services of other companies to create tour packages, including transportation, hotels, restaurants, performance and admission tickets and other services. The passengers or customers are contracting directly with the provider of the services. DayTripper Tours does not assume any liability for any accidents, personal injury or property damage, and/or loss, and/or any liabilities, expenses, or damages to you or any persons traveling with you owing to any act of default or negligence caused by any person or company engaged in providing those services, or by any strike, acts of Providence or other events beyond our control. We reserve the right to cancel or alter any tour when circumstances require. By submitting your payment for any tour you are accepting these terms and conditions in their entirety.

Champagne Brunch Cruise Aboard John Wayne's Yacht

Join us to Newport Beach and embark on a delightful Champagne Brunch Cruise aboard the Wild Goose, the private yacht owned by American movie legend John Wayne. The Hollywood icon's career spanned more than five decades and nearly 250 films. The Wild Goose also accrued credits in its own right, serving as a prop in several movies, including The President's Analyst (1967) and Skidoo (1968). The Duke purchased the ship in 1962 and used it as a place to relax and entertain such VIPs as Richard Nixon, Ronald Reagan, Dean Martin and more. During your 2-hour cruise past multimillion-dollar yachts and dockside homes of Newport Harbor, you'll enjoy a bountiful brunch with free-flowing champagne, mimosas and sparkling cider. Then, take a self-guided tour of this floating museum of John Wayne memorabilia at your leisure, including a visit to the staterooms and wheelhouse.

Evita at Ernest Borgnine Theatre

Come with us to the Ernest Borgnine Theatre in Long Beach for a matinee performance of Evita, Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber's musical masterpiece. The story charts the young and ambitious Eva Perón's meteoric rise to sainthood. Set in Argentina between 1934-1952, the Tony Award-winning show follows Eva on her journey from poor illegitimate child to ambitious actress to, as the wife of military leader-turned-president Juan Perón, the most powerful woman in Latin America before her death from cancer at age 33. Evita's life events are presented in song and commented on by the show's narrator, Che. Enjoy well-known numbers such as "Don't Cry for Me Argentina," "Oh, What a Circus," "Buenos Aires" and "Another Suitcase in Another Hall." Your tour also includes time for lunch on your own at the Pike waterfront dining center at Rainbow Harbor.

Fillmore & Western Luncheon Train

Tucked away in the rolling hills of Ventura County is a refurbished railway linking the friendly towns of Fillmore and Santa Paula. Join us as we travel to Fillmore and step aboard a vintage train for a 3-hour luncheon excursion between the two communities. Once the whistle blows and the train departs Fillmore at noon, relax in the dining car and enjoy lunch service of green salad, orange-glazed chicken, rice, vegetables, rolls & butter, dessert and piping-hot coffee or tea as the train rides the rails through the Heritage Valley. We'll also visit Santa Paula where you'll have time to stroll the streets of this quaint town home to the California Oil Museum, the Santa Paula Art Museum, the Ventura County Agriculture Museum and brilliant multicultural murals depicting the town's colorful history. Experience this popular day trip that was featured on the Road Trip with Huell Howser television series.

Get Your Kicks on L.A.'s Route 66

U.S. Highway 66 - popularly known as Route 66 or the Mother Road - holds a special place in American hearts, evoking images of simpler times, mom & pop businesses, and the icons of a nation on the road. On this tour, explore the Southern California portion of this famous roadway with a special step-on guide. Take a ride through some of the towns of Route 66 and stop at several original shops that made this legendary road the "Main Street" of America. Our journey begins with a specialty donut and coffee from the route's own Donut Man. Then it's off to an included lunch at the nostalgic North Woods Inn - a warm and woodsy eatery with stained glass, oil paintings and period lamps. Savor a Route 66 "route beer" and time to shop at Galco's Soda Pop Shop, which boasts hundreds of vintage sodas and classic candies. Following a visit to Grand Central Market we round out our day with a treat from Phoenix Bakery. Come with us and get your kicks on Route 66!

 Getty Center

Come visit the fabulous $1.3 billion Getty Center, situated on 110 acres in the Santa Monica Mountains overlooking Brentwood. This museum in Los Angeles is more than twice the size of the original Getty Villa in Malibu and houses changing exhibitions as well as the expanding permanent collections of pre-20th-century European paintings, drawings, illuminated manuscripts, sculptures, and decorative arts in addition to 19th and 20th century American and European photographs. Gardens and terraces throughout provide sweeping views of downtown Los Angeles, the Santa Monica mountains and the Pacific Ocean. Enjoy lunch on your own at one of the Center's several eateries. Even if you've visited before, come back with us to explore the new exhibitions along with the timeless masterpieces at this cultural treasure!
Getty Villa Museum

Travel with us to Malibu and explore the J. Paul Getty Villa Museum, which recently underwent an extensive multimillion-dollar renovation. View freshly conserved objects previously kept in storage, such as first-century A.D. frescoes from a Villa near Pompeii. Artifacts in the permanent collection have also been rearranged to present the history of Greek and Roman art in a more chronological manner, and a new ground-floor gallery houses art from neighboring cultures. The Getty Villa is the only museum in the U.S. solely devoted to antiquities from the Mediterranean region and contains over 1,200 Greek, Roman and Etruscan relics spanning 7,000 years of ancient art, from the end of the Stone Age to the fall of the Roman Empire. Your day includes four hours to explore the museum at your leisure and have lunch on your own at the museum's cafe, which serves casual Mediterranean fare.

Golden Age of Warner Bros. Iconic Classic Films Tour

Venture inside Warner Bros. Studio for a newly developed behind-the-scenes look at this thriving motion picture studio highlighting its classic film history. This tour focuses on Hollywood's Golden Age at Warner Brothers, featuring award-winning titles that were shot on the iconic backlot from the early days of the Studio through the 1970s. Starting with a champagne toast to the Classics, you'll embark on a 3-hour tram tour of the 110-acre grounds, which include 30 soundstages and 10 backlots that have been the sets for numerous memorable films and TV shows throughout the years. You'll also tour Studio 48, which houses an exhibit featuring original costumes from Casablanca, My Fair Lady, Rebel Without a Cause and more. This evening enjoy an all-inclusive dinner at Souplantation.

Gustavo Dudamel & the L.A. Phil at Disney Concert Hall

Join us for classical excellence and artistic virtuoso when we visit the Walt Disney Concert Hall for a matinee concert featuring Gustavo Dudamel. This show launches the L.A. Phil's 100th anniversary celebration with the beauty and bravura of masterworks by beloved American composers, including former Music Director André Previn, who contributed a brand new work for the Centennial. Your afternoon includes Terrace seating and time for lunch on your own in L.A.'s Atwater Village district; or for an additional $31 join your Tour Manager for an all-inclusive gourmet luncheon at the historic Tam O'Shanter restaurant. Be sure to get your name on our Priority Notification list and we'll contact passengers in the order the names are received as soon as ticket prices are announced in early July 2019.

Haunted History of Los Angeles with Curt Tucker

Embrace the spirit of Halloween when you journey to the spookiest spaces in Los Angeles. Experience some of the notorious hotspots for the paranormal, fueled by the energy of the spirits which haunt them, with our special step-on guide Curt Tucker - a local historian and SoCal cultural expert. You'll explore sights in Downtown, Hollywood, Mid-Wilshire, and Boyle Heights. Wander through famous grave sites at Hollywood Forever and Evergreen cemeteries. Pass by Hotel Cecil, with its dark and unnerving history, and the Pico House, a centuries-old hotel rumored to feature mysterious footsteps and shadowy figures lurking on the balconies. From the lingering spirits at the Hollywood Bowl to the murder of mobsters in Beverly Hills to a tragic suicide at the Hollywood Sign, there are plenty of haunts to discover on this eerie daytime adventure. Your journey also includes lunch at the HMS Bounty restaurant.

HO'OLAULE'A Hawaiian Festival & Redondo Beach Pier

Journey with us to Lawndale, between Long Beach and Santa Monica, and experience the authentic culture of the Hawaiian Islands when we attend the 41st annual HO'OLAULE'A (ho-o-lau-lay-ah) Hawaiian Festival. This unique festival features South Pacific-themed arts & crafts booths, games, hula classes and dancing, vendors dishing up an array of island cuisine, prize drawings and continuous Polynesian entertainment on multiple stages featuring various genres of Hawaiian music, singers and dancers. After the festival we'll visit the historic Redondo Beach Pier at Fisherman's Wharf where you'll have time on your own to enjoy a scenic stroll and take in the panoramic ocean views, or indulge in some shopping at the unique specialty boutiques dotted along the pier. Don't forget to wear your most colorful Hawaiian attire when you join us on this fabulous tour celebrating the spirit of Aloha!

Hubbell Home Tour with Historic Julian

Discover a hidden gem in our nearby Cuyamaca Mountains when you travel with us to the fascinating James Hubbell home and art studio near Julian for an exclusive tour. As a painter, sculptor, stained-glass artist, poet, visionary and architect, James Hubbell's intent when he began building his mountaintop retreat was to create a home that appeared to grow out of the landscape and blend naturally with the gifts of nature. Granite boulders and soft oak-shaded hills with russet etchings of manzanita influenced the design. Buildings were to fit into the landscape, using existing trees and rocks as precious objects to build around. During your docent-guided tour you'll see gardens, artwork, the pool, fountains and several buildings including the studios where artists will be working, the renowned “Boys' House” and the “Chapel.” Your excursion includes time for lunch on your own in downtown Julian.

Huntington Library & Gardens Centennial Celebration

Autumn is a beautiful time to visit the magnificent Huntington, an expansive estate near Pasadena featuring art galleries, a library of rare manuscripts, and 150 acres of one of the world's finest botanical gardens. Celebrate the Huntington's Centennial as you explore its new exhibition Nineteen Nineteen, which draws from the library, art, and botanical collections to examine that historic year across the globe and the Huntington's founding in the context of international events. Experience the serenity of the Chinese Garden, "The Garden of Flowering Fragrance," featuring a 1.5-acre lake bordered by Taihu rocks, hand-carved stone bridges, a stream, and a canyon waterfall. You'll have time to visit the conservatory, stroll lush gardens and visit a host of galleries housing world-class art. In October, you'll also get to celebrate the amazing diversity of orchids as hundreds of exotic blooms compete for honors at The Huntington's annual International Orchid Show and Sale. Lunch is on your own at the estate's cafe, or enjoy a delightful English Tea service in the charming Rose Garden Tea Room (advance reservations required).

Idyllwild Art Walk & Wine Tasting

Nestled among majestic pines in the San Jacinto Mountains, the mile-high town of Idyllwild has earned the distinction of becoming one of the 100 Best Small Art Towns in America, and autumn is a time when art lovers and wine connoisseurs gather for the annual Art Walk. Journey with us to this picturesque community and stroll through dozens of art galleries and boutiques to the ambiance of live music during their 22nd annual Art Walk & Wine Tasting event. You'll have free time to enjoy lunch on your own at one of several quaint eateries and experience the festivities amid the crisp fall mountain air. For an additional $35 you can pre-purchase a commemorative wine glass, which serves as your ticket for wine tasting at all the participating art galleries. Join us on this popular autumn event in the mountains!

Jeopardy! TV Game Show

Virginia Robinson Estate Tour & UCLA Botanical Garden

Of the many grand and glorious homes in Beverly Hills, there's only one which opens its doors for guided tours. Built in 1911, the Robinson Estate was one of the first homes in the area. Its owner, Virginia Robinson of Robinsons-May department store fame, was known as "The First Lady of Beverly Hills." She had a green thumb and transformed her hilly, six-acre estate into a lushly landscaped tropical oasis. She was also known for her grand parties, which were attended by celebrities such as Ronald Reagan, Fred Astaire and Charles Boyer. Our first stop of the day is the L.A. Farmers Market, where you'll have time for lunch on your own. Next, we'll embark on an exclusive guided tour of the Robinson Estate's manicured gardens and magnificent home. Your excursion also includes a stop at the gorgeous UCLA Mildred E. Mathias Botanical Garden where you'll enjoy a docent-guided tour of this living museum.

Pismo Beach & the Monarch Butterflies

Experience nature’s brilliance on a 3-day retreat to Pismo Beach and the Monarch Butterfly Grove, home to one of the largest Monarch displays in the nation! Each year the Monarchs flock to Pismo Beach, creating breathtaking cascades of color in the trees as they seek shelter from the northern winters. You’ll be mesmerized by the vibrant orange and black colors swirling through the air like fairies. You’ll also visit the beautiful historic 1786 Santa Barbara Mission, stroll the charming streets of Ojai, and have the option to take in a fun and fabulous show at the Great American Melodrama & Vaudeville theater. Your butterfly adventure includes deluxe accommodations at The Cliffs Resort Hotel; a self-guided tour of the La Purisima Mission near Lompoc, the only example in California of a complete mission complex; four meals; and more. Beautiful nature, amazing history, and a charming setting make this an excursion not to be missed!
